The Old Mills is a Montreal-based band that plays a mix of the oldies and pop hits, reinvented with their unique bluesy-country sound. Members include Luke Gossage, Diego Occhicone, Ariana Borjian, and Cole Fitzgerald.

2016-2017 IMPACT REPORT

THE YEAR IN NUMBERS

In 2016-2017, your support helped us to make room for some fundamental changes, including phasing out traditional shelter beds. Have a look at some of the remarkable achievements made possible by you:

4,447

individual home visits provided to ensure the successful integration of clients into their new life off the street

45

veterans received essential support services

300

homeless people provided with adapted medical care at our walk-in clinic

138

homeless men and women treated for persistent, serious mental health problems

313

permanent, affordable housing options for homeless women and men

53,000

articles of clothing given to homeless men and women 598

homeless women welcomed to the Patricia Mackenzie Pavilion

235,000

varied, nutritious meals provided to homeless women and men

204

homeless men and women given legal help from the Mobile Legal Clinic at the Mission

4,259

safe rides provided to homeless people via the Mission's shuttle to various resources in the community
